

LIONS AND LEOPARDS AND TENT SAFARIS

If you really want to be a swell Valentine, why not spoil your loved one with a romantic Hemingway-style tent safari in remote unspoiled terrain? Leora Rothschild, who was born in South Africa and is the owner of Rothschild Safaris (based here in Santa Barbara), books custom-designed safaris throughout the dark continent. "Many people are interested in something specialized," says Rothschild. "One of the nice things about tent safaris in Africa is that in the evenings, you can sit around the campfire and hear all the sounds of the animals." Every now and then, she adds, a pride of lions may even walk through the camp! There are even nighttime game drives complete with spotlight for viewing nocturnal animals. It's an unforgettable adventure!
